

Goccia di Genziana

The unequalled taste of Abruzzo. Genziana is a spontaneous plant that grows in our grazing lands on the mountains at more than 2500 metres of altitude. Its roots have been always used in the preparation of drugs and for making liqueurs. Genziana is rich of bitter essences that help digestion. We suggest drinking it plain, best if served cold, to appreciate its bitter taste. Alcohol content: 30% vol Content: cl 50 / cl 70 / cl 150
