

Goccia di genziana alla Grappa

It differs from Goccia di Genziana because its roots macerate in the Grappa liqueur. Its taste becomes more delicate, with a less bitter finish and a higher alcohol content of 38° to give value to the taste of Grappa. Excellent after meals, best served at 16/18° in long-stemmed large glasses used for Brandy. Alcohol content: 38% vol Content: cl 70
